Child Custody

You can ask a judge to make custody orders for your children. There are two types of custody in California: legal and physical custody. For both types of custody, parents can share custody (joint) or one parent can have full custody (sole).

- Legal custody means the person who makes decisions about the child's health, education, and welfare.
- Physical custody means the person who the child regularly lives with.

Any orders made by the judge now will last until your court date (about three weeks away). On your court date, the judge can change or extend the orders.

Visitation (Parenting Time) with Children

Visitation (parenting time) is the time each parent spends with the child. If a parent does not get custody, that parent can have visits, if a judge believes it is safe and in the child's best interest. Visitation orders a judge can make include:

- No visits
- Virtual or in-person visits
- Visits supervised (monitored) by a third party
- Visits not supervised

Any orders made by the judge now will last until your court date (about three weeks away). On your court date, the judge can change or extend the orders. Answer the questions below to tell the judge what parenting time you want the person in 2 to have until your court date.
